

Military Family Life Consultants

Civilian: 0175-617-5799 or 0160-990-82323 or contact your local ACS office.

Located in Building 7029. Provides brief solution-focused problem-solving support in conjunction with existing programs. Also provides education and support for a range of issues including relationships, crisis intervention, stress management, grief, occupational and other individual and family issues.

- Flexible times
- Flexible meeting locations
- No records kept
- Confidential

Chaplains' Family Life Center DSN: 337-6867

Civilian: 0611-705-6867

Located in Building 1041 at Wiesbaden Army Airfield. The Family Life Center provides faith-based counseling for individuals, couples and families

Social Work Service

DSN: 337-5297/5942

Civilian: 0611-705-5297/5942

Located in Building 1526 on Wiesbaden Army Airfield. Provides assessment, treatment and training services in crisis intervention, child abuse and neglect, domestic maltreatment, parenting (including blended and single parent families), marital/couples issues, teen issues, men's and women's issues, anger and stress management and special needs families. Services are available to active duty Soldiers, Family Members, civilians and retirees. We offer individual, group, couples and family therapy.

WIESBADEN COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES

Reaching out makes a
REAL DIFFERENCE

Photo by SrA Gina Chiavonetti

We're Here For You

Behavioral Health Services

DSN: 337-7971

Civilian: 0611-705-7971

Located in Building 1040 on Wiesbaden Army Airfield. Psychiatrists, psychologists and social workers provide services and/or training for active duty Soldiers, Family Members, civilians and retirees in anger management, combat stress, PTSD, traumatic brain injury (TBI), blended Families, child rearing, special needs children, couples counseling, crisis intervention, chronic worry, depression, drug-related issues, grief counseling, marital counseling, marital difficulties, men's issues, panic attacks, parenting skills, self esteem, single parenting, stress management, suicide prevention, teen issues, mental health consultation services and women's issues. Psychiatrists provide medication evaluation and management. Please call for detailed information on all of these services.

Army Substance Abuse Program

DSN: 337-1710

Civilian: 0611-705-1710

Located in Building 1526. ASAP provides services and/or training in alcohol and drug related issues. Alcohol Anonymous and Narcotics Anonymous meetings, Alcohol & Drug Abuse Prevention Training (ADAPT) DUI/DWI, drug apprehension and alcohol abuse course, Employee Assistance Program (EAP) screening, referral and counseling for civilian personnel, Unit Prevention Leader (UPL) and Unit Awareness Prevention Training (UAPT). For detailed information on all services, please call ASAP.

---

Adolescent Substance Abuse Counseling Service

DSN: 0611-360-0511

Located at the Wiesbaden High School. Provides services addressing alcohol-related issues, anger management training, assertiveness training, blended families, conflict resolution, depression, drug-related issues, grief counseling, self care, self esteem, single parenting, stress management, suicide prevention, teen issues and tobacco cessation (teen). Please call for detailed information on ASACS services.

Army Community Service and Family Advocacy Program

DSN: 335-5254

Civilian: 0611-408-0254

Located in Building 7790 Hainerberg Housing. Provides education, awareness, and prevention training in all areas of family violence and family issues. Newcomer's Orientation, Unit training, training for Child and Youth services personnel, and individual briefings for new Commanders and 1st Sergeants are provided. Advocacy and support services are provided for domestic abuse and sexual assault. Classes and training are available for stress and anger management, communication tools and conflict resolution, blended families, time management, and safety education. New Parent support services include pregnancy, parenting skills, child rearing, breast feeding/lactation support, supervised play groups and intensive home visiting. Emergency placement services are provided for instances of child abuse and neglect and respite care.

Other Army Community Services programs include Information and Referral, Financial Readiness/Counseling, Army Emergency Relief, Relocation Readiness, Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP), Mobilization Readiness, and Employment Readiness.